

This is a statement in support of KLove radio and other radio stations like it that are supported by their listeners and are broadcast all over the world. I listen to KLove on 88.7. I live in a remote part of Texas where few radio stations exist. There is just one within 50 miles of my home. The loss of this station and others like it would severely limit our listening options. Please allow them to remain on the air.